PREFACE

At the annual meeting of the Kappa of New York, Phi Beta Kappa, held in June, 1904, it was voted that the Secretary should compile a catalogue of the members of this chapter. In doing so he has been very largely indebted to the Supplement to the Alumni Catalogue of the University just issued by Dean Frank Smalley. Since that book is of late publication and was very carefully compiled, there are probably not many errors in this catalogue; but whatever there are will be gratefully corrected at the suggestion of those concerned.

In making out this list it has obviously been necessary to include the names of those alone who have accepted the honor of election to membership and have complied with the requirements of initiation.

EDGAR C. MORRIS,
Secretary

June 1, 1905

HISTORY OF THE CHAPTER

At the request of the Faculty of the College of Liberal Arts of Syracuse University, Professor Wellesley P. Coddington, Wesleyan, '60, Professor Edgar A. Emens, Wesleyan, '86, Professor Ernest N. Pattee, Rochester, '86, and Professor Edgar C. Morris, Hamilton, '89, consented to act as a committee to petition the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa for a chapter of that Fraternity in Syracuse University. A petition was drawn up, signed by Chancellor James R. Day and the above named committee, and sent to Dr. E. B. Parsons, Secretary of the United Chapters, in January, 1895. In the following August Professor Coddington, Professor Emens, and Professor Morris attended the meeting of the Triennial Council of the United Chapters at Saratoga Springs, at which meeting the petition of the committee from Syracuse University was granted. On the 11th of September, a charter was issued to the Kappa of New York with the following charter members: Chancellor James R. Day, S. T. D., Professor Wellesley P. Coddington, D. D., Professor Edgar A. Emens, A. M., Professor Ernest N. Pattee, M. S., and Professor Edgar C. Morris, A. M.

HISTORY OF THE CHAPTER

The charter members of the chapter were called together at 2:30 P. M., February 10, 1896, in the Chancellor's office, where they organized the chapter by electing the following officers: President, Dr. Wellesley P. Coddington; Vice-President, Professor Edgar A. Emens; Secretary, Professor Edgar C. Morris; Treasurer, Professor Ernest N. Pattee.

At a meeting held February 15, the constitution recommended by the United Chapters and such by-laws as seemed needed for the conduct of business were adopted.
